

CANTORIAL SOLOISTS BECOME ORDAINED CANTORS AT THE ACADEMY FOR JEWISH RELIGION

Master our sacred texts.

Enhance your facility with Hebrew language.

Cultivate your role as spiritual leader.

Join a community of learners that support and cherish each other.

Immerse yourself in the richness of Jewish musical tradition.

Explore more deeply the meaning of the text you sing so beautifully.

Build your professional skills in counseling, homiletics, performing life cycle events and education.

“As a Cantorial Soloist, I chose to become ordained through AJR because of its well rounded and complete Cantorial training, superior preparation for spiritual leadership, opportunities for creative exploration shaping and encouraging our unique gifts and talents while providing a community network of ongoing professional support that continues after seminary training concludes.”

Cantor Elizabeth Sternlieb,
Sinai Free Synagogue

Flexible full or part-time study!
More info: Cantor Lisa Klinger-Kantor
lklingerkantor@ajrsem.org

“AJR trains rabbis and cantors together as co-clergy. We exchange ideas, build on each other’s strengths and create an environment that is safe, nurturing and exciting. From liturgy to mysticism, from Bible to Nusah, all of this comes together as we define and redefine what a spiritual leader should be.”

Cantor Dorothy Goldberg
Congregational Cantor and Hospice Chaplain